Dance In The Wind

Do you find yourself more pessimistic than optimistic these days? Lift your spirit with the unseen caresses of "Dance in the Wind."

Dried colored leaves falling to the ground
A lady views the show while walking through town
A breeze finds a leaf and blows it all around
It's time to dance in the wind

- 1) It 2) She leaps and swirls with the movements of the air
 - 1) It's 2) She's hearing a brand new song
- A new season will soon begin

it (she)dances in the wind ...

The leaf seem to speak to the woman looking on She's held her pain for so long
But she knows she must move on
It's time to dance in the wind

Dance in the wind, Change is coming again
The chill will come and in our face may blow
But let's make faith our friend

The days of youth how quickly they fly
Who knows how long that we'll live or when we die
This moment embrace, it can't pass us by

It's time to dance in the wind

I Am A Woman

Girls, get excited about the divine essence in you!
Soloists: Corrine Simpson, Megan Stoltzfus

She knows she's being noticed, a lad stares in her eyes
He's looking straight at her, his heart he can not hide
She's excited, yet she's scared, a new road will be there
Love reaches her, no longer a girl,
She shares these thoughts, while embracing this new world

I've been given a gift I'm a woman
Fashioned just right I am
So beautiful so nice I'll treasure all my life that I am a woman ... I am a woman.

At the hospital she's with her love, their baby's coming soon
And then in but a moment, new life enters the room ...

A gentle touch, yet strong enough to care for others
Be profound, and abound in being a mother
Dress up and dance, laugh and have fun
Oh my God, I stand in awe, of your grand creation

The years have flown, kids are grown, she now walks with a cane
Spring is coming soon when heaven will call her name ...

Someone Smiles

Laughter versus smiling ... laughing at something humorous ... but what makes us smile? Children make me smile ... knowing that people care about me makes me smile ...

Jill yearns to go out and play, Doctors say it won't be that way.
must live inside, The world passes by
She hears the doorbell ring, Oh that sound what delight it brings
A friend stops by, To stay awhile
Today they play Cinderella, Jill get's the prince what a handsome fella
This sparks hope inside of her
Her friend planned it all, to help Jill recover wants to see Jill ...

Smile, without a trace of disguise,
What a sight for those who have love in their eyes.
A good deed is paid in full seein' a smile is beautiful
Where someone cares, someone smiles ...

The man next door has a problem, No one gets close to help solve it ntil the day, a child heads his way.
A little boy four years old, Didn't care if Gus was rude or cold
Somehow he knew, his neighbor was blue
So he brought over a lunch, says he's got more than enough
Even Gus couldn't close the door.
The chains around his heart aren't there anymore. Now Gus can ...

Is there anything so sweet, Is there anything so kind
Is there any greater prize in a life than when we cause someone to ...

Warmth of a Summer Day

Next time you feel the sun warm up your body, let it remind you to warm up your outlook on life!

Purple and yellow
Flowers in the meadow
Gently swaying as the breeze gently blows
No longer under-cover
open wide with colors
Rays of light parade the greatest fashion show

The warmth of a summer day
Purging out the coldness trying to invade this way
Capturing my senses, tearing down defenses
I'm loving today more than yesterday

The warmth of a summer day.

What size, what build the Oak tree in the field
With each year he's drawing closer to the sky
It's though he bids me welcome
To come up and have some fun
With each limb I climb it's a natural high.

Soaking up the sun
There's enough for everyone
If we're rich if we're poor
We just keep coming back for more, for more,
The spotlights on us as we go outdoors!

I Belong To You

In this song I show emotional exhaustion because of 8 OVERSEAS moves, and 2 years of living in a motor home! I had to evaluate how much more I could take and count my blessings. Marriage, ... I am so thankful to face life TOGETHER!!

We've lived many places, known people of all races,
Setting roots is not what we have done
Stability is overdue, I get a life then we move.
My love, where do I belong?
But what I am starting to understand
That helps me to make it wherever I am ...

I belong to you, and wherever you are, that is my home
I belong with you, My piece of ground. settling down
Family'n old friends around,
Right now just won't do, But that's ok cause I belong to you.

I find it hard to forget, How secure and how content
I felt in my one house where I was raised.
But now just seeing a Uhaul truck
I start to sweat thinking it's for us
I'd love to have our own place.
But what I am starting to understand
That helps me to make it, wherever I am ...

Two hearts together are what make a home
A house by itself is nothing alone
I can live here or there, I can make it anywhere.

Just because, just because ...

Could I Just

It's not so fun to dance by yourself! Don't take your loved one for granted ... SEE them and find the moments to express your gratitude.

Soloist: Drex Archer

Could I just make tonight an endless melody?
Could I just make time stop for you and I?
For I'd like to show you more, yes prove to you that your
The one I love to love in this life.

Could I just make tonight a silent memory?
Could I just give a smile that says it all?
To somehow give enough, before life passes us
Come beneath the stars, come into my arms, let me share my love.

Evening skies are lovely
Yet I don't look above me
For I get way too busy to take the time
Just like that I forget
To show how content
I am to have you in my life.

I love having you in my life!

Could I just make tonight a heartfelt ecstasy?
Could I just caress your face in the moonlight?
Right now it's only us, and all that shines above
Come beneath the stars, oh come into my arms, let me share my love ...

Eyes

Look into your eyes. Look into the eyes of others. To be truthful, even with ourselves, is invaluable to going forward!

She wears Valentino, a yacht is a summer home,
Her beauty has a price, and what it takes for a fantasy life.
An expert of masquerade, it's a pointless game,
Can't take another day, I know this not from looks but her

Eyes ... it's hard for eyes to lie
As reflections of the mountains on the water
They're the mirror of your soul
They're experts in romancing
When you're feeling low, everyone can know
Because of eyes ...

He laughs with pure ease, loves to tickle and tease the first to offer hugs, is he for real, does he love that much
Now his affection, is called into question
But has pure intentions, I know this not from words, but his ...

Let's look at one other, and read the stories never told
Notice that extra glimmer, or when it's fading, getting dimmer
With one good glimpse what will their eyes show ...

When We Close Our Eyes

"Life itself is the prize, not the dull heartless tin of stuff." (unknown source)

The squalor outside her door with sewage flowing by
Her home is scattered boards completely cracked and dried
Her tedious work has ended, this Asian gets into bed
Upon the dirt floor is where she lays her head ...

As she (he) closes her eyes, everything disappears
When she closes her eyes, it does not matter what she has here
For what she sees, she will not keep,
She needs reminding as she falls asleep
When she closes her eyes, poverty hides (prosperity hides)

A man with six sports cars and a mansion on the hill
He has an art collection totally surreal.
But just like the lady from Bangladesh he lays in his bed ...
That's fit for a king, paintings overhead

Sleep ... let things fleet away
Greet ... divinity's way
Dream ... let your body be caressed as you rest in that you cannot see

Wouldn't It Be Nice

More than ever I realize how beautiful and important faith is. How can we dance with joy if we ignore the one who purifies our inner being?

The money he made he sacrificed and saved, went to buy a new porche
A few years it was great, but now it's full of scrapes, doesn't start anymore.
So much he's loved, now is just stuff, life's mortality is clear
So many of his days, have been an empty chase
He longs for what won't rot or disappear

Wouldn't it be nice to believe
Wouldn't it be nice to receive, the glories of heaven, being forgiven, feeling God's love in this life.
Wouldn't it be nice, to believe

It's hard to believe in what we cannot see, but take for instance love
Your heart beats faster, it's what really matters when our lives are done
But just as this, what would we miss, if there is eternity
If we could feel it now, know its goodness and power
Is there something to what we cannot see

Optimism grows, one find's new hope
Darkness begins to fade, it's like a brand new day

You Will Never Be Alone (The Graduation Song)

I wrote this for my daughter's High School graduation ceremony.

We remember when we brought you home and never slept for days
For being one so little, you knew how to get your own way
And then with just a moment, you could walk and sing
And still today we have to laugh, at your funny, childish things.
But time has come around, when you're in cap and gown.
We know there's coming a change.
You will rise to new heights, in forming your new life.
With your wings you may fly away.
You will be OK, for there's hope in each new day.

Chorus:

As you go, we want you to know
That you will never be alone. For the Lord up above
Has promised his great love. He'll be there for you.
Your dad and mom's heart will be there too.

We've been growing together, with each victory and mistake,
Now our paths lead us apart, but there's purpose in those days.
The bond we share will always be, we will stay in touch
It's not just cause we're family, it's cause we love each other so much ...
But time has come around, when you're in cap and gown.
We know there's coming a change.
You will rise to new heights, in forming your new life.
With your wings you may fly away.
You will be OK, for there's hope in each new day.

BRIDGE:

It's not easy to let you go, when we still want to hold you close.
But there's comfort we receive.
'cause we believe, cause we believe ...

Chorus:

As you go, we know that you know
That you will never be alone. For the Lord up above
Has promised his great love. He'll be there for you.
(Don't forget to Him stay true)
Your dad and mom's heart will be there too.
You will never be alone ...
We will never be alone.

A Diamond In The Rock

Though "diamond in the rough" is the usual saying, "diamond in the rock," describes more accurately what I want to say in this song. There are people who have loved me and invested something of themselves in my life. As I see them age, I see some of them wondering if they are worth anything anymore ... I wrote this song to show them how their loved ones see them now.

A stroll in the countryside, I find a stone weathered by the years,
People had crossed it's path, but the rock still lies intact, so it appears
A miner I'll be today, with a chisel I pound away
At this time what might I find
Then to my amazement, to my surprise, I just cannot believe my eyes!

A diamond in the rock
A diamond in the rock is what I see, You're so lovely
Others overlook(ed) your value, But I am so blessed to have you
You're a gem you're a treasure, your sight brings me pleasure
A diamond in the rock I see, a diamond in the rock for me

Reminds me of those people who think they're unnoticed in these days

Their appearance has changed with hair that's turned to gray, or gone away ...
They're thinking they are old, few stories will still be told
Unaware of how they shine,
Now you know this song's for you, to help you realize
This is how you look to my eyes ...

Just like a rock, you're solid and strong
When faith is tested you keep holding on Your inner beauty is more than it was
With each added year you're only more loved.

Sometimes And Always

"So my very dear friends, don't get thrown off course. Every desirable and beneficial gift comes out of heaven. The gifts are river of light cascading down from the Father of Light. There is nothing deceitful in God, nothing two faced ... He brought us to life ... " The Message Bible

Sometimes, I have it together, it doesn't matter if it's stormy or if it's sunny weather and sometimes I can love whomever, whether lovely or uncomely, my heart goes on forever. Sometimes

YET always, and forever, in times of greatness or weakness I need Jesus, always, always ...

But sometimes, obstacles daunt me, worries want me how they haunt me, I struggle with such small things
Sometimes, I'm just performing, I'm not growing, I'm ignoring, what the Lord wants for me. Sometimes

He has always been, with Him my life begins.
The Divine One is who He is
He's not here one day and then is gone, His love goes on and on
That is why I face each sometime like this
That is why I always need him

Sometimes I am happy, I am laughing I am dancing, and no one is more lively
Sometimes I'm amazing, my strengths go beyond me,
I don't doubt God has made me ... sometimes ... But in each sometime, Jesus is always with me.
